

Campervan and Motorhome Hire Security Deposit

At Retro Camper Hire, (as with most hire companies), we require a security deposit. The amount of deposit required is €1500.

If in the unfortunate event of damage caused to the campervan while out on hire the customer is responsible to pay the first €1500 of any repair costs. This can be reduced by purchasing of one the liability packages below. The amount for the security deposit will be pre-authorized from your credit or debit card at check-in.

You are required to have the funds available in your account at check-in to cover the security deposit. The vehicle cannot be released until the funds are pre-authorized.

What is a motorhome hire security deposit?

The security deposit covers the cost of any loss or damage from any one incident that has occurred to the vehicle whilst it has been on hire. It is authorised at check-in and will be released providing your vehicle is returned in the condition it was received in. At Retro Camper Hire, security deposits are authorised in the currency of the hire depot.

Please note, it can take up to 28 days for the security deposit to return to your account

The High Road - Reduce your liability to €250

This cover is our highest liability reduction option for peace of mind on the road.

Charged daily, it allows you to reduce your liability to £250/€250 in the event of any damage to the camper.

It is popular with customers looking the highest protection and those not experienced in driving campervans and motorhomes or driving on the left-hand side of road.

The Middle Road – Reduce your liability by 50% €200

Meet in the middle by reducing your liability by 50%.

This liability reduction option, charged daily, allows you to reduce your security deposit by 50%. That means your liability in the event of damage to the vehicle, will only be 50% of the standard security deposit. For example, if the standard security deposit and liability on your chosen camper is £1500, this will be halved to just £750.

The 50% liability reduction is popular with anyone who wants additional protection on the road.

The Low Road – Basic option

The basic option. This keeps the security deposit or liability as standard for your vehicle and ranges from € 1500
